Fact Sheet

Mission

Founded in 1993, the International Telework Association and Council (ITAC) is a non-profit organization dedicated to advancing the growth and success of work independent of location.

ITAC sponsors research, holds educational events, distributes information about telework, and assists businesses and the public to optimize the advantages of working remotely. Products and services of ITAC include:

- an e-Newsletter, Telework News
- Telework America Research reports
- an e-Work Guide
- bi-monthly Web seminars
- annual Membership Conference
- Members-Only Web site

Officers

President: Tim Kane, Kinetic Workplace

Vice President: Nancy L. deLay, Ph.D., Eli Lilly and Company

Secretary: Joyce Twohig Larrick, Bowie State University

Treasurer: Noel Hodson, Experts Unlimited, UK

Directors at Large

Frank Connolly, Jr., Piper Rudnick LLP
Gil Gordon, Gil Gordon Associates
Dr. Wendell Joice, Office of Government-wide Policy/U.S. GSA
Toni Kistner, NetWork World
William Michael, Office of Government-wide Policy/U.S. GSA
Lilly Platt, Legato Consulting
Joe Roitz, AT&T
Susan Tierney, Valley Metro
John Vivadelli, AgilQuest

For More Information

Pressoffice@workingfromanywhere.org for media inquiries; Info@workingfromanywhere.org for membership and all other questions; visit www.workingfromanywhere.org, or call 301-650-2322.

International Telework Association & Council
8403 Colesville Road, Suite 865
Silver Spring, MD 20910 USA
Telephone: 301-650-2322
www.workingfromanywhere.org

Committees

Agency Special Interest Committee (ASPIC) -- facilitates networking among ITAC members at the local, state and federal level who are implementing telework programs in their agency or promoting telework to their community.

Conference Committee -- sets up the virtual and in-person meetings for ITAC throughout the year, including decisions on locations, speakers, and topics.

Membership & Marketing Committee – develops member satisfaction and outreach programs, helping to increase the number of ITAC members, and improving ITAC networking opportunities.

Research Committee -- guides the survey for the next edition of the widely respected Telework America research, supported by AT&T.

Membership Categories

ITAC members today represent a broad range of organizations, from sole proprietorships to large multi-national corporations to government agencies. Because we believe our charter to promote work from anywhere applies across all sectors, industries, sizes and types of organizations, we strive to serve as many constituencies as we can.

Five membership categories share a set of basic privileges, with additional benefits tailored to the needs of each group. For specific benefit information, see How To Join on the ITAC Web site, at http://www.workingfromanywhere.org.

SOLE PROPRIETOR/ EDUCATION/ NON-PROFIT Annual dues $250	This member category provides an affordable option for the self-employed who have no employees, for educational institutions such as colleges and universities, and for non-profit organizations.
TELEWORK USERS Annual dues $500	For any company or organization whose primary interest in telework is to implement telework within the organization. Benefits apply to all employees, so that Human Resources, facilities management, IT departments, etc. can fully participate in the programs and services that ITAC offers.
AGENCIES Annual dues $500	For government offices (federal, state and local) that promote telework to the public or manage employee telework programs for the agency. All agency employees may participate in ITAC activities.
VENDORS Annual dues $1,000-3,000	For companies that offer telework solutions including consultants, technology companies, telecommunication companies, and telework centers.
TELEWORK TOP TIER (TTT) Annual dues $25,000	This premier membership category is designed for telework leaders, with exclusive opportunities for communication and visibility within the telework community, in the media and to the ITAC membership.

International Telework Association & Council
8403 Colesville Road, Suite 865
Silver Spring, MD 20910 USA
Telephone: 301-650-2322
www.workingfromanywhere.org